

Sent: Tuesday, July 31, 2001 9:20 AM

Subject: Wine at Orangewood Consulting - 3 - Newsflash

Hello,

I have just delivered the first case of 2000 Noceto Frivolo to AJ's at Central and Camelback. I know that most of you have not tasted the Frivolo. It's a summer sipper. Jim and Suzy Gullett from Vino Noceto give it this description:

Moscato Bianco (Muscat Blanc), 25% Orange Muscat; a light, refreshing muscat wine with a slight spritz. Designed for casual, summer-time drinking or as a light, dessert wine. Pairs well with fruit, fruit desserts, cheese, and biscotti. Also, goes well with Asian dishes. Serve well-chilled.

I expect AJ's will price it at around $10.

Standby for more breaking news...

Richard and Laurie Corles