

Víctor Hugo Winery

2010 Les Mís Estate Rosé

- WINERY: Víctor Hugo Vineyards and Winery is one of Paso Robles' most exciting and innovative wineries. Family owned and operated, the winery specializes in small hand crafted lots of wine with intense colors and flavors. The winery is dedicated to producing elegant, rich wines exhibiting excellent longevity. The owner, Víctor Hugo Roberts, has a degree in enology and three years of winery experience. Their grapes are from the Templeton Hills estate vineyard as well as selected neighboring vineyards chosen for their quality. The Templeton Gap offers warm days, breezy afternoons and cool nighttime temperatures.
- APPELLATION: Paso Robles
- DESCRIPTION: Light, bright and refreshing rosé with a hint of sweetness. Ideal for salads asian food and hot summer afternoons.
- 2010 VINTAGE: 2010 not to be outdone by our challenging 2009 harvest produced another wild ride for growers and winemakers. Normal budbreak, incredibly cool summer, heat spike in mid-September, followed by 5 weekends of rain delayed completion of harvest until November 24. The most meticulous growers and winemakers excelled in 2010.
- WINEMAKING: The grapes were hand harvested, crushed, and then cold soaked for 48 hours prior to barreling free run juice for fermentation in seasoned French oak barrels. The wine was aged on its lees passively for 5 months prior to bottling. This process produced a richer mouthfeel and allowed the wine to be bottled with minimal filtration.
- HARVEST: Hand harvested. Brix @ harvest: 23.1°
- BLEND: 70% Syrah, 30% Malbec
- COOPERAGE: 5 months in seasoned French oak barrels
- BOTTLED: April 14, 2011
- PRODUCTION: 175 cases
- ANALYSIS: Alcohol 13.1%, TA 0.71 g/100 ml, pH 3.31, RS 0.28 g/100 ml
